Greeting from JSI.

A major focus of JSI’s work with grantees in Year 5 is on enhancing community partnerships to address social determinants of teen pregnancy. We have established a community of practice involving five grantees, that was launched with a 2-day meeting in February.

This excellent resource from the ACT for Youth Center of Excellence provides tips and talking points for engaging new partners, specifically the business community, in your teen pregnancy prevention efforts.

For more tools and resources on the social determinants of adolescent health and expanding community partnerships, visit our website.
technical assistance, please contact JSI.

This update is published by JSI Research & Training Institute's Working with Diverse Communities Component, part of the Teenage Pregnancy Prevention: Integrating Services, Programs, and Strategies Through Community-wide Initiatives project, funded by the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Health (OASH), Office of Adolescent Health (OAH)/Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) under the President's Teen Pregnancy Prevention Initiative (TPPI).